About Webtoon Today

Webtoon Today is a data-driven content startup established in 2021, specializing in webtoon and web novel production.

The company has secured 2.5 billion KRW in investments from leading venture capital firms including Fast Ventures, Capstone Partners, Base Ventures, Laguna Investment, Crit Ventures, and D.Camp, and has been selected for the prestigious TIPS program.

Founded by a former researcher at Naver Search Research Center, the company leverages strong technological capabilities to develop data-driven content production solutions such as Webtoon Analytics and Webtoon Metrics. We have successfully supplied 13 webtoon series to Naver Webtoon, including the popular title "육식고".

Our new Indonesian language education app project aims to bridge Korean and Indonesian cultures through innovative content. Join our dynamic team in our modern office space near Gangnam Station and be part of our global expansion!
